Course content will enable firefighters to recognize the types of events encountered on the fire ground that contribute to firefighter disorientation and/or entrapment, to have knowledge of what is necessary to ensure their safety and that of their partners or crew members, and to perform self-rescue techniques when disoriented, separated, or needing to exit a structure in an emergency.

This course requires students to perform a number of practical evolutions with self-contained breathing apparatus. (SCBA)

The course consists of 12 hours of training presented on as follows:
