

Civil Division: Oneida County Government
Jurisdictional Class: Competitive
EEO Category: Professionals
Revised: 08/09/16
Approved by OTDA: 09/22/05

SOCIAL SERVICES INVESTIGATOR

DISTINGUISHING FEATURES OF THE CLASS: Employees in this class investigate cases of alleged welfare fraud and conduct internal agency investigations. The work involves research and field investigation of individuals and vendors in cases where there is allegation or suspicion of improper amounts of payments, failure to make support payments, and attempted or actual welfare fraud. Incumbents are responsible for gathering evidence and documentation, including individuals' statements to develop cases. The work includes negotiating payment agreements according to individual circumstances. The work is performed under general direction, with broad discretion permitted in carrying out the details of the work. The incumbent performs related work as required.

TYPICAL WORK ACTIVITIES: (Illustrative Only)

Conducts assigned investigations of cases of suspected public assistance, Medicaid, food stamp, and vendor fraud;
Has knowledge of public assistance laws and rules, and obtains information to determine type of fraud involved and discusses the possibility of criminal charges;
Interviews clients, their relatives and others, and initiates proper procedure to obtain support or gather information concerning violation of social service laws;
Makes field visits to question recipient's neighbors, acquaintances, employers and others to secure information for the possible prosecution of fraud cases;
Conducts internal agency investigations;
Makes field visits when needed to obtain information or documents required to determine financial eligibility for public assistance or other programs administered by the Department of Social Services;
Serves summonses upon respondents who have a record for non-appearance in court;
Prepares detailed reports for each case;
Answers correspondence and inquiries concerning support or fraud matters from other government agencies, beneficiaries and respondents;
Appears on the Department's behalf at pre-trial hearings, felony hearings, grand juries, and trials to give testimony, and helps coordinate other agency witnesses;
May serve subpoenas upon witnesses in paternity or support cases.

FULL PERFORMANCE KNOWLEDGE, SKILLS, ABILITIES AND PERSONAL CHARACTERISTICS:

Good knowledge of investigative techniques used in determining financial practices, and status of vendors and individuals, and in locating missing persons; good knowledge of office terminology and modern methods used in keeping and checking financial records and reports; working knowledge of Federal and State social service and related laws and regulations in regard to desertion and fraud; ability to develop materials for legal actions according to prescribed regulations; ability to prepare written reports; ability to analyze facts and use them in making judgment in desertion and fraud cases.

continued...

MINIMUM QUALIFICATIONS: Candidates must meet the minimum qualifications at time of application.

Either:

- (A) Graduation from a regionally accredited or New York State registered college or university with a Bachelor's Degree in criminal justice or a closely related field; OR
- (B) Graduation from a regionally accredited or New York State registered college or university with an Associate's Degree in criminal justice or a closely related field, AND two (2) years of field investigation* experience; OR
- (C) Successful completion of sixty (60) credit hours at a regionally accredited or New York State registered college or university AND three (3) years of field investigation* experience.

*Field investigation involves traveling to an office, home, place of business or other location deemed important to the investigation. Data and evidence are gathered from these field visits and statements and/or affidavits from involved individuals and witnesses may be obtained.

NOTE: Verifiable part-time experience as described above will be pro-rated toward meeting full-time experience requirements.

SPECIAL REQUIREMENT: Employees in this class will require access to transportation in order to meet field work requirements in a timely and efficient manner. Possession of a valid New York State driver's license at time of appointment will be required. Incumbent must maintain license throughout appointment.

Adopted: 01/28/82

Revised: 01/31/95, 06/29/95, 02/12/97, 03/07/97, 08/30/02, 09/06/05, 08/09/16

Title in promotional series: Resource Investigator; Senior Resource Investigator; Social Services Investigator; Senior Social Services Investigator; Supervising Resource Investigator; Resource Consultant