AGENDA

- Intermunicipal Agreement signing update
 - Plan to sign the IMA in March at the first independent Oriskany Creek Commission meeting. The Planning Department will be issuing a press release ahead of time, and will be in contact with Municipal leaders to discuss the details.
 - Details about the time and location for the IMA signing and meeting will be sent out next week by Adam Palmer, it will likely stay at 4:30PM unless otherwise decided by Commission Members.
- Future meeting location update
 - The location for future Oriskany Creek Commission will likely be alternating between the Town of Whitestown offices, and in the Village of Clinton beginning at the first meeting in March.
 - The specific meeting location in Clinton is TBD – Adam Palmer will update the group next week.
 - The location of the first meeting in March has not yet been decided – Adam Palmer will notify Commission members when a final location is selected.
 - The meeting time will remain at 4:30PM, unless decided otherwise by Commission members, and all future meeting dates will also be set at the first meeting in March.
